The purpose of the Washington Liveaboard Association (WLAS) is to serve as a conduit for sharing experience, education, and information between people living aboard their boats and the entire community. The WLAS can also act as the representative of the liveaboard community on issues that are a concern to the membership. In order to accomplish this we need to hear from you. Together we can protect our lifestyle and the recreational use of boats. Membership is open to all liveaboards and others interested in the community.
