

The ReSail Project is Coming to Shilshole Bay Marina

Donate Your Old Sails to Help Those in Need

The ReSail Project keeps old sails out of landfills by providing sails for developing countries in the south Pacific and for shelter for homeless people here and in Mexico.

If you're getting new sails and would like to see your old sails help people in need, please consider donating them to the ReSail Project.

Three Opportunities to Donate Your Old Sails

National Marina Day & Open Boat Showcase—June 11

Visit the ReSail Project at the National Marina Day & Open Boat Showcase event to donate your old sails and to get information on upcoming collections.

Dockside Solutions—July 29-August 2

Donate your old sails at Dockside Solutions anytime during business hours.

National Night Out—August 2

Current Shilshole Bay Marina customers can donate their old sales at the National Night Out event. The donations from the event and from the Dockside Solutions collection will be presented to the ReSail Project during the spoken program.
